Carrie Edge is Named Special Ed Teacher of the Year

The Candler County Program for Exceptional Children has presented the 2013-2014 Special Education Teacher of the Year award to Carrie Edge. Edge is in her fifth year as a special education inclusion teacher with an educational specialist degree. She and her husband Forrest live in Soperton. They have one son, Burton, and are expecting another child in September. "Carrie is extremely talented and focused in her work," said Assistant Superintendent Dr. Bubba Longgear. "She is Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) trained, which gives her a knowledge base for working with students with difficult behavior and social needs. She can always be counted on to serve in any capacity needed. She is a lead learner, peer mentor, teacher and most of all, an advocate for students with disabilities." stated Dr. Longgear.
